

Sporty T800

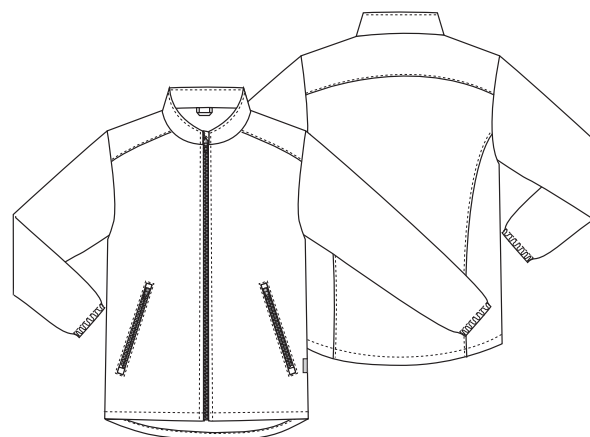

5400169 UNISEX ZIP JACKET (Ordernumber: 5400169-0011)

The flexible and light weight multi stretch jacket is a great addition for a versatile and active day for physiotherapists and other staff where flexibility, movement or exercise is part of the day. The well-proportioned silhouette and fit in combination with a minimalistic look bring attention to the person in the suit and shows your personality. For a functional and flattering look this style is longer at the back. Soft elastic at sleeve openings adds extra comfort in combination with the possibility of adjusting sleeve length for different seasons and for daily wear both indoors and light wear outdoors. The two large zip pockets at the front are highly functional and keep your keys and devices safe and handy during the day.
